Dear Friends of Dayton Christian,

Christian education is a beacon of hope to families striving to raise Christ-centered children in an age of fear and uncertainty.

Despite what is happening in our world, God's absolute truth still stands strong. We are committed to upholding His truth, which has fueled our enrollment growth over the past several years.

Our ability to reach more students for Christ can only happen through a strong partnership with like-minded supporters. The financial support we receive from donors enables us to go beyond funding day-to-day operations to investing in areas that ensure our ability to impact future generations.

I have witnessed God's faithfulness to DC through the obedience of our supporters. In the past few years, we have opened our campus's first gymnasium, created a dedicated PreK-K educational wing, transformed our campus's curb appeal, invested in high-level high school tutoring, and replaced roofs, boilers, and walk-in freezers.

These investments play a critical role in our ability to serve families and introduce more students to the saving faith found only in Jesus Christ.

Blessings,

Dr. John Gredy

"Tammy and I see a great need for Christian education and have seen the difference it makes in young peoples' lives," Tom says. "We feel called to help provide that opportunity. To him who much is given, much is expected!"

In 2021, Tom Joch and his wife, Tammy Boatman, established The Rulane Legacy Academic Scholarship and Extracurricular Grant. The scholarship and grant are awarded to high school students who exemplify what it means to be a DC Warrior and whose families' commitment to Christian education would benefit from financial support.

Tom is a local businessman and owner of Cassady Woodworks. He is a parent of a DC graduate and is a long-time tennis coach at Dayton Christian. His personal experience with DC has shown him the importance of a Christian education in preparing students for a successful life focused on Christ.

The Rulane Legacy Academic Scholarship and Extracurricular Grant

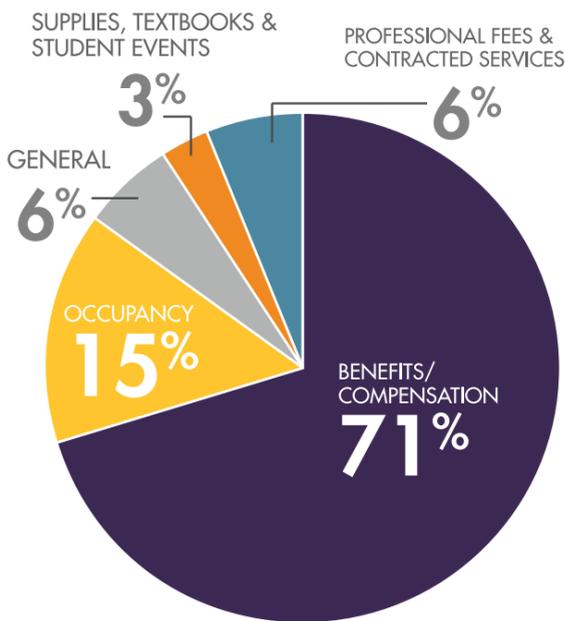

Dayton Christian School is a blessing to our family because it provides high-quality education that reinforces the Christ-centered worldview that our children receive at home. We are so thankful for the DC donors whose generosity has helped us maintain our commitment to Christian school education for our children.

Biblical stewardship means all of my money belongs to God. My conviction to invest in Christian education is driven by the reality that such a small percentage of students under the age of 21 enter adulthood with a Christian worldview. There's nothing more important than our children and ensuring that they grow up with a strong, Biblical heritage.
